

PINE BEETLES SURGE 2025 Source: KVDR - DENVER COLORADO reprint

Bark beetles killing more trees along the front range, ...

According to the report, the front range is experiencing a surge in activity from the mountain pine beetle. In 2021, the insect impacted 1,500 acres statewide. In 2024, that number grew to 5,600 affected acres and included areas in Jefferson County and Castle Rock.

What's a natural solution?

BEYOND all natural Plant Amendment™

Exclusive Biological Fortifier

Restore & Maintain Tree & Plant Health

Since 2007 – Colorado's proven BEYOND saves trees

"After treating spruce and ponderosa pines just once it saves trees. It's an amazing product! Our customers repeatedly ask for it year after year. We have BEYOND customers all over including the City of Saratoga, WY" Top-Notch Tree Service & Arborist Greeley, CO

Prove effective by NASA / USDA / CSU

100% Satisfaction Guaranteed

Save Trees - seen on TV - No spraying of trees needed! Easy to use - apply to soil

Perfect for lawns and gardens, shrubs, bedding plants and fruiting trees - Safe around children and pets

Formulated for TREES, LAWNS & PLANTS - BEYOND natural Plant Amendment™ - EARTH Friendly

www.AgriHouse.com

Tel 970 532-3554

info@agrihouse.com

AGRIHOUSE
Brands Ltd